

BOOK EXPLORERS

Exploring with Books

City Visit

Bb

BARBARA BUSH FOUNDATION for
FAMILY LITERACY

Max, Sara, Maya, and Sam are taking a trip to the city. What are some things that you think they will see?

Sara's mom tells them to stay close to her at all times. "No one should walk away from the group," Sara's mom says.

“Look at those tall buildings!” Max shouts.

“That is the tallest building I have ever seen!”
says Maya.

“Why are there so many cars?” Maya asks.

“There is a lot of traffic in the city,” Sara’s mom answers.

“Mom, how many people live in the city?” Sara asks as she looks around at all the people.

“A lot of people live in cities, so sometimes they are crowded,” her mom replies. “We can look online to see how many people live in this city.”

“Oh, no!” Sam shouts. “Where did Max go?”

Sara’s mom looks all around until she sees Max looking in a store window.

“Max!” shout the children. “You scared us!”

“Look at this,” Max says, waving them over to the window.

Inside the window are displays of kites, trains, and puzzles. There is a sign that says, “Come in and try out a new hobby.”

The children all cheer with excitement.

“I guess we know what everyone’s favorite part of the city is,” Sara’s mom says with a smile.

Word List:

buildings (p. 3)

crowded (p. 5)

favorite (p. 8)

traffic (p. 4)

Bb

---

BARBARA BUSH
FOUNDATION for
FAMILY LITERACY

 www.barbarabush.org

 @BarbaraBushFdn

 @barbarabushfoundation

 @BarbaraBushFoundation